

JNIBF signs MOU with two premier Institutes – ASCI and GITAM HBS

Jawaharlal Nehru Institute of Banking & Finance (JNIBF), Hyderabad has entered into MoU with ASCI (Administrative Staff College of India) and Gandhi Institute of Technology and Management [GITAM] Hyderabad Business School (GHBS) on Friday, September 17, 2021 for a joint collaboration on training and allied areas.

The signing ceremony was commemorated under the gracious presence of Shri Ajay Sharma, ED-HR & Training, Shri Sandeep Kumar Sharma, CGM & Director-JNIBF, Shri Suresh Bhojappa Rathod, GM (Academics) and faculty team from both the institutes. The event was made memorable by exchanging Memorandum of Understanding with ASCI and GHBS. ASCI is the College for Practicing Managers established in 1956 at the initiative of the government and the corporate sector. It has pioneered post-experience management education in India. GITAM has been accredited by NAAC with A+ Grade. Ministry of HRD recognized GITAM as Category '1' University and granted Graded Autonomy. GITAM has also been recognized by UGC as a Research University and accorded 12 B status.

The MoUs will help in foraying in the areas of administrative and academics domain. The collaborations will also enable JNIBF to explore the resources of the respective institutes and provide world-class training, experience sharing, networking and adopting best practices. The broad contours of the collaboration envisages developing managerial skills amongst professionals from BFSI sector in both India and abroad by jointly offering training programs and conducting seminars, conferences, workshops etc. in emerging areas of banking, finance and management sphere.
